

STARRING

Judge Maria Lopez

PRODUCED BY

Sony Pictures Television

First-Run Syndication

- Starring Judge Maria Lopez (Boston University Law School graduate and former Legal Counsel to Massachusetts Office of Refugees and Immigrants, District Court Judge, and Massachusetts Superior Court Judge).
- Having overcome substantial odds to rise to the top of the legal system, Judge Maria Lopez commands her own daytime court show with her dynamic, strong-willed personality and unique life experience.
- A Half-Hour Court.

After becoming the first Latina judge in history to be appointed to the Massachusetts Superior Court, Judge Maria Lopez is no stranger to the spotlight. This fall, she brings her candid, compassionate approach to daytime television as host of Judge Maria Lopez. Lopez's commitment to fighting for the underdog stems from her own experiences growing up as a Cuban refugee who overcame poverty and hardship to rise through college and law school. At the beginning of her fulfilling career, Lopez aided other immigrants by serving as the Legal Counsel to the Massachusetts Office of Refugees and Immigrants for nearly ten years. Now, with more than 25 years of legal experience to her name, Judge Maria Lopez sets foot onscreen to introduce her unique perspective and compelling personality to audiences nationwide.